GAABESU USA Representative mailed USD 1,000.00 including USD 680 raised on-line from our donors listed below.

Original Appeal

GAABESU (<http://www.becollege.org>) Emergency Fund Sub-Committee joins hand with the Class of 1977 who initiated a fund drive to help a fellow BEC/BESU community member in medical emergency. As Smt. Anjali Raychowdhury needs fund immediately, GAABESU will appreciate if all willing donors donate as soon as possible so that GAABESU and Class of 1977 hand over the necessary amount to Smt Raychowdhury by April 15, 2010.

To speed up the fund raising effort, we prefer you donate on-line by a credit card from anywhere in the world. If credit card is not an acceptable option, please contact Bhaskar DasGupta, 81EE (USA) or Soham DasGupta, 77ME (India) for additional payment information in India and USA. If you donate directly, please contact Mr. Soham DasGupta for any acknowledgment you may need. For your on-line donation, you will receive instantaneous receipt via email. We will publish list of on-line donors at the end of the fund drive to our web site which will be notified shortly.

5. Case History: Smt. Raychowdhury's adopted son, Ashok is suffering from Chronic Lymphocytic Leukemia. (CLL). The doctors of Calcutta Medical College have advised him to undergo six rounds of chemotherapy, with in a period of six months. The estimated cost of basic treatment is around Rs.300,000/- . Being a spinster and a retired person Anjali Raychowdhury is practically unable to afford this expenditure. However from her savings and others' support she has already spent around Rs.150,000/- for first three rounds of chemotherapy. Still she needs around Rs. 200000/- to complete the prescribed treatment.

6. The copy of the report of Calcutta Medical College is being attached herewith.

7. Estimated total fund requirement Rs. 350000/-

Already spent Rs. 160000/-

Fund available from other sources Rs. 30000/-

Our goal to raise Rs 2,00,000 by April 15, 2010.

We hope you will join us in helping a fellow BEC/BESU community member in medical emergency. For recent cases, please check out the following page.
